

Name: _____

Canada's Fishing Industry

Key Issues in the Industry

- Where does the industry take place?
- How important is it to Canada's economy?
- What are the issues?
- The future of the fisheries: Aquaculture

1. On this map, circle and label where Canada's inland and offshore fisheries are located.

2 Which sector of Canada's fishing industry employs the most amount of people?

3 Which sector makes the most money, the commercial ocean or the commercial fresh water fisheries industry?

4 What are the issues faced in the fisheries industry on of Canada's shores?

East Coast	West Coast

5 What is aquaculture?

•Aquaculture is the farming of _____, _____ and _____ plants in _____ or _____ water.

Name: _____

- In Canada, aquaculture was first used to _____ stocks. It is now a _____ commercial industry across the country.
- All ten provinces and the Yukon Territory currently have a stake in _____ aquaculture.
- In 2007, aquaculture production accounted for about _____% of total fish production in Canada.

6. What kinds of fish and seafood are raised by aquaculture in Canada?

What is raised?	Where is it raised?

7. When watching the two videos, look for key facts that support the positive or negative viewpoints about the sustainability of aquaculture.

For Aquaculture	Against Aquaculture

Homework: pg 289-290 Questions 2 and 3. Use the blank area below to dot jot dots or rough draft answers. Hand in answers on a full sheet of paper as a good copy on Monday. Each answers need to be a paragraph long. (Mrs. Howell is getting you folks ready for the answers on the final exams)